LIVING CHURCH

About the Family

I am married to Dillon, who is the most amazing man. One of my biggest passions is writing. I love getting to share my story and to hear other people's stories as well. I love spending time with my family, and I love doing life with my church!

Dillon and I are very involved in our church community and spend a lot of time with our family as well. We love getting to learn more about each other every day, and we love having the privilege of serving the Lord together.

About My Ministry

I know the Lord wants to change lives through the gospel, and I have learned that God wants to use my story to help others as well. When we got married, Dillon and I were unaware that God would call us to ministry through Baptist Collegiate Ministry (BCM) at Northern Kentucky University (NKU), but recently, God has shown us that He wants me to serve as an intern at BCM.

My role at BCM is to disciple, to help with events and to help with administrative needs. The biggest part of my job is to disciple the younger women and to teach them how to disciple others.

We are excited to see what God does at the BCM on NKU's campus and beyond. BCM played a huge part in building my faith when I was a student at NKU, and I am so excited to see how BCM impacts other students in the coming years.
