

Emily Crutcher

CENTRAL CHURCH, COLLEGE STATION

Find out how you can
Pray.
Participate.
Provide.

PRAY.

Pray that I can meet people exactly where they are so I can effectively minister to them and bring glory to Christ.

Pray that I can find a new residence as I begin serving as a full-time chaplain at Baylor Scott & White Hospital in Grapevine, Texas.

Pray for strength and wisdom as I walk in this new position.

PARTICIPATE

Commit to long-term prayer support. Explore the opportunities to extend the reach of your church by becoming a chaplain. Be involved in supporting chaplains and their families. Send notes of encouragement. Talk with a chaplain about his or her ministry context. Send resources that support a chaplain's ministry context. Pray for chaplains and their families.

PROVIDE

Learn the ministry strategy and context, so you can provide relevant resources. Support a missionary financially.

About the Family

I am a single (never been married), 43-year-old woman who was called to serve in ministry when I was a child. I was moved quite a bit in my adolescent years, giving me experience with various types of people throughout my life. I have served on many short-term missions teams, seeking to honor God with my life.

My father is retired and serves as a deacon at my church, Central Church, where I have been a member for more than 20 years. My mother is a homemaker, and I have two younger siblings and five nieces or nephews.

I have been called to share Christ with others my whole life and truly feel called to serve in hospital chaplaincy.

About My Ministry

I'm an SBC-endorsed healthcare chaplain. My calling to chaplaincy stemmed from a horrible accident that happened when I was 18. This accident left me in a coma for seven weeks where I had to learn how to do everything all over again. By the grace of God, I survived this accident and have been called to hospital chaplaincy where I can minister to others with whom I have the blessing of relating and ministering to due to my own personal loss and experience (Romans 8:28).

I have a Master's Degree in Biblical Counseling from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and stand firmly on the Word of God in ministry as the inerrant truth by which God provides answers to the many questions this life brings.