CHURCH ON MAUI

About the Family

My beautiful wife, Danni, and I have four beautiful daughters and a new baby boy. Their names are Evie, Zoey, Tai, Shiloh and baby Ezekiel.

Moving all of us to Maui is going to bring some struggles, namely the cost of living at least doubling, and leaving our families and church family that has been such a healthy place for us for the past decade. We trust God will meet our needs and bless us with abundant spiritual blessings as we hold onto this promise:

“Jesus said, ‘Truly, I say to you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or lands, for my sake and for the gospel, who will not receive a hundredfold now in this time, houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and lands, with persecutions, and in the age to come eternal life’” (Mark 10:29-30).

About My Church Plant

Our hope is to help establish a gospel-centered church on the west side of Maui.

Maui, like all places, has a need for healthy churches. But because of the culture, cost of living and distance from family, the church in Maui has struggled in recent years. Maui is a wonderful place to visit, but a difficult place to call home. Our goal is to help see God’s people flourish on the island of Maui and help other sister churches do the same. But the only way this will happen is for believers to settle down in this tough place to live and make it home.

This can happen if there are healthy, gospel-centered churches in Hawaii. We desire to see that happen in every town in Hawaii.

PARTICIPATE

Commit to partner with our family and ministry through prayer and giving.

Receive and read our monthly prayer letters.

Invite your small group, missions committee or church to send a short-term team.

Give up your plans, homes and life to come serve the Lord and His church on Maui.

PROVIDE

Many missionaries build a team to join their ministry in prayer, participation, and provision. These friends, family and churches support missionaries beyond the tithes and offerings given within the church plant.
