

Femi Oke

MANNA HOUSE

About the Family

I am originally from Lagos, Nigeria, and made the life-changing decision to move to the United States in 2016 to pursue a degree at the Reformed Theological Seminary. During my time at seminary, I developed a strong foundation in theology and a deep burden to reach immigrants in the United States with the transformative message of God's grace.

About My Church Plant

Manna House's vision is to establish a gospel-centered, culturally-sensitive Christian community in Charlotte, reaching immigrants and anyone who appreciates such a nurturing space. Unfortunately, the challenges of adapting to a new culture and the allure of Western self-sufficiency can draw immigrants away from their faith. We recognize that we are all spiritual sojourners, awaiting our eternal home.

Our primary goal is to be an earthly home for new and old immigrant sojourners, serving as a landing spot that addresses their spiritual, physical and community needs. We aim to reach out to these new individuals before the cares of this world carry them away from their faith, with the ultimate aspiration of equipping these immigrants to, in turn, reach their neighbors for Christ.

Find out how you can

Pray.

Participate.

Provide.

PRAY.

Pray for boldness to share the gospel and open hearts among the people to whom we speak.
Pray that through this ministry, more people would come to saving faith and live on mission.

Our desire is to continue providing meaningful experiences for the growing and isolated immigrant population in Charlotte. We invite you to pray for us as we embark on this mission.
Pray for stamina and longevity for ministry amidst attacks from the enemy.

PARTICIPATE

Build relationships with missionaries and their families.
Send notes of encouragement.
Learn birthdays and anniversaries, so you can send gifts and cards.

PROVIDE

Learn the ministry strategy and context, so you can provide relevant resources.
Support a missionary financially.