FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH GALLATIN

About the Family

God has blessed me with a wonderful wife and family. My wife, Pam, and I have been married 37 years, with six great children and 10 beautiful grandchildren. I am a retired police officer while Pam is still working with St. Thomas Heart in Nashville. Thankfully God has been good to us through the years. He has made us desire to share His Word every day.

About My Ministry

I'm an SBC-endorsed law enforcement chaplain. When I retired from the police department, I still had more to give. So God led me to become a chaplain. I currently serve as one of the chaplains with the Gallatin Police Department. I am blessed to be associated with such professional, kind and caring officers.

On the other end of the spectrum, I also represent my church with the Men of Valor program. That program is a blessing to me as well. I now have an opportunity to share the gospel with men who are incarcerated and who are probably hearing God's Word for the first time.

Find out how you can

Pray.

Participate.

Provide.

PRAY.

Pray for boldness to share the gospel and open hearts among the people to whom I minister.
Pray for people to come to saving faith in Jesus.
Pray for more to become missionaries and chaplains.

PARTICIPATE

Commit to long-term prayer support. Explore the opportunities to extend the reach of your church by becoming a chaplain. Be involved in supporting chaplains and their families. Send notes of encouragement. Talk with a chaplain about his or her ministry context. Send resources that support a chaplain's ministry context. Pray for chaplains and their families.

PROVIDE

Learn the ministry strategy and context, so you can provide relevant resources. Support a missionary financially.
