About the Family

We are the Frómeta González family: Pastor Yadniel, my wife, Rachel, and our children, Mía Bethel and Ian Caleb. God has called us to a beautiful and challenging mission: to be church planters and to carry the message of the gospel's transformation where it is most needed.

Over the years, the Lord has allowed us to serve you on an incredible missionary journey that has crossed borders, serving with passion in Cuba, Guyana, Brazil, and, currently, in the United States. Every culture and every city has taught us that the need for healthy and vibrant faith communities is universal.

About My Church Plant

Our Mission Today:

Through Sent Network and in collaboration with the North Carolina Baptist Convention, we are fully dedicated to the planting of new churches. We firmly believe that a strong local church transforms families, restores communities, and extends the kingdom of God.

The planting of churches requires a collective effort. We invite you to partner with us financially and in prayer. Your generosity provides us with the sustenance and resources to continue responding in obedience to God's call. Each donation is an eternal investment in advancing the gospel.
