HARVEST CHURCH

About the Family

I gave my life to Christ at 10 years old. Pursuing a call to ministry, I earned a degree in Christian Educational Ministry from Taylor University and have served in the local church for more than 12 years.

I am currently pursuing a Master of Divinity from Grace College. I have been married to my wife, Ashley, for 13 years, and we have three children. Ashley also earned a degree in Christian Educational Ministry from Taylor University. We both enjoy serving in the local church by spreading the gospel and sharing the love of Jesus in tangible ways.

About My Church Plant

Harvest Church is a local expression of Christ-followers who find our identity in those who have been called out by God, changed by His gospel, and gathered for the sake of exalting and following Jesus. Like the local churches in the New Testament and all those through history, we function with the biblical goal, leadership, and mission provided by God's Word, the Bible.

As we seek to make more disciples in central Indiana who will step onto God's mission wherever He may send, we are launching a campus in the Castleton community of northern Indianapolis. Castleton is a neighborhood with roughly 11,000 residents and incredible opportunities to share the gospel. Our prayer is that we would join in the work God has already initiated in Castleton to see our communities changed and lives transformed with the gospel.
