H2O CITY

About the Family

We are Grant and Cassi Rohlfer, and we are planting H2O Church in Clifton, Ohio. In college, I, Grant, studied adolescent and young adult education with a focus on social studies.

My favorite books are the Bible, the Great Gatsby, the Grapes of Wrath, Crazy Love, Knowing God and the Cross of Christ.

I enjoy being with people, playing and watching sports, and laughing. I have a pretty extreme laugh that's been known to scare people and make babies cry. Also, I hate writing on my skin.

Cassi studied Spanish in college. She enjoys playing and watching sports, making new friends, eating ice cream. Her favorite books are Not a Fan by Kyle Idleman, Radical by David Platt, and World War Z by Max Brooks.

She is made fun of on a consistent basis for holding her fork weird and finds entertainment in awkward situations.

About My Church Plant

H2O City is a community comprised of older students, post-graduates and working members of the Cincinnati community. It is a place for men and women to grow deeper in their relationship with God and come together as Christ-followers for fellowship and encouragement.

As a plant of H2O Cincinnati on campus at the University of Cincinnati (UC), H2O City allows community members to carry some of the friendships, passions and momentum they have in college into the next stage of life and take the reach of H2O beyond our campus to the city of Cincinnati.
