

Greg Nowell

IMMANUEL BAPTIST CHURCH

About the Family

I am originally from Headland, Ala., and now reside in Pace, Fla. I'm married to Sherri (Cole) of Marianna, Fla., and we celebrated our 25th wedding anniversary in December 2021. We are the proud parents of two young adults, Claire and Cole.

In 1993, I graduated from Troy State University in Dothan, Ala., and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth, Texas, in 1999. I have completed five units of Clinical Pastoral Education between Methodist Hospitals of Dallas and Baptist Health in Pensacola, Fla.

About My Ministry

I am an SBC-endorsed healthcare chaplain who have been honored to serve as a hospital chaplain for more than 25 years. I recently began working with a local hospice organization as a bereavement coordinator. This new position has allowed me to focus on encouragement and support for individuals and families following their loss.

Find out how you can
Pray.
Participate.
Provide.

PRAY.

Pray that through my ministry others will see, feel and know the love of Christ.
Pray chaplains in all ministry settings will have opportunities to share our hope with individuals and families in crisis.
Pray for boldness to share the gospel and open hearts among the people to whom I minister.
Pray for people to come to saving faith in Jesus.
Pray more people will become missionaries and chaplains.

PARTICIPATE

Commit to long-term prayer support.
Explore the opportunities to extend the reach of your church by becoming a chaplain. Be involved in supporting chaplains and their families. Send notes of encouragement. Talk with a chaplain about his or her ministry context. Send resources that support a chaplain's ministry context. Pray for chaplains and their families.

PROVIDE

Learn the ministry strategy and context, so you can provide relevant resources. Support a missionary financially.