

SEND Network

Gregoire Luabala

CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP EVANGELICAL CHURCH

About the Family

Gregoire has been happily married to Louise Luabala for 48 years. They came to Denver as refugees from the Democratic Republic of Congo in 2007. They have three daughters and only one in the United States. Five of their nine grandchildren are in the U.S.

Gregoire pastored in Burundi and Rwanda for eight years and planted six churches in East of Congo over 12 years.

About My Church Plant

Gregoire and Louise are planting a French-speaking church in Denver, Colo. They are meeting in the Vietnamese Central Baptist Church building. Countries of origin that they are reaching are from Congo, Kinshasa, Congo Brazzaville, Central Africa and Mali. The church is passionate about sharing the gospel and discipling French-speaking people in metro Denver and to all nations.

Find out how you can

Pray.

Participate.

Provide.

PRAY.

Pray for Gregoire and Louise as they gather and reach out to French-speaking communities. Pray the church will be established and will faithfully work to identify a new church plant in metro Denver and to other countries.

Pray for refugees to have economic stability so the church can become self-sustaining, propagating and governing. Pray for their good health, gospel saturation, spiritual transformation and protection from the attacks of evil forces.

PARTICIPATE

Please include us on your personal/church weekly, monthly, yearly prayer focus for missionaries.

Join with us to live, worship, work and pray with former refugees as they express their fears, hopes and anxieties. Join us in building relationships with members of the community, church planting team members and their families.

Send notes of encouragement.

Learn birthdays and anniversaries, so you can send gifts and cards.

PROVIDE

Learn the church plant, its strategy and context, so you can provide relevant resources.

Support a church planter financially.