FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH HOXIE

About the Family

I have been married for 56 years to Esther Garrett. We live in Memphis, Tenn. We have three children living in the Memphis area (two daughters and one son). I retired from the Navy after 23 years of service. My second career was as an information technology systems analyst. I served with the International Mission Board (IMB) in Israel as a volunteer for a year and then as a Mission Service Corps missionary in northeast Arkansas. I was designated Mission Service Corps emeritus October 2, 2012.

About My Ministry

I am an endorsed disaster relief unit chaplain with the Arkansas Baptist State Convention. As a chaplain I minister in areas affected by a disaster. I am an ordained minister and a member of the Southern Baptist Messianic Fellowship.
