About the Family

God called me to the ministry in spring of 2007. He has blessed me with a beautiful wife, three children and now nine grandchildren. I was also blessed with a great job; however, I continued to feel that something was missing. I had served as a deacon, taught Sunday School and served in my local church for years, but I could not get over one thought—if I truly believed what I said I believed, then I was not even close to being in God's will and being sold out for Christ.

This was the initial calling that led me to pastor two churches, attend seminary and join the Army as chaplain. Since then, it has been a very rewarding and fulfilling time in my life. It has also been challenging and at times frustrating. I continue to be blessed and every day wake up wondering what the Lord is going to do next!

About My Ministry

Since receiving the call in 2007, I have completed seminary school with a Master of Divinity in Chaplaincy. During this time, I have served as a pastor in two churches, a disaster relief chaplain and an Army National Guard Chaplain while maintaining my secular job. Most important, I continued to keep God first and serve my family as a husband, father and now a grandfather. I look forward to new doors opening as a chaplain and pastor.
