JAPANESE INTERNATIONAL HARVEST CHURCH

About the Family

I grew up in St. Louis, and most all of my family is still, thankfully, in the area. I'm the middle child of three girls and the aunt of four adorably wonderful nieces and nephews.

About My Ministry

Friends of Internationals is an international ministry based in St. Louis, Mo. We seek to build Christ-filled community among international students and scholars at the Washington University campus, among young adult internationals who are employed in the area, and among the community at the Japanese International Harvest Church.

Find out how you can

Pray.

Participate.

Provide.

PRAY.

For churches and the international ministry networks as they prepare to send out missionaries and disciples to push back lostness in North America and all over the world.

For receptive hearts among the people in communities where these missionaries will serve.

For churches and individuals to partner with missionaries and students to give of their time and talents.

For the Father to send more workers into His harvest to join these missionaries and students.

PARTICIPATE

Connect as a Sending Church or a Supporting Church with a missionary's work.

Commit to long-term missions support with your missionary partner.

Be involved in supporting missionaries. Pray for missionaries.

PROVIDE

Many missionaries build a team to join their ministry in prayer, participation, and provision. These friends, family and churches support missionaries beyond the tithes and offerings given within the church plant. Visit sendnetwork.com/PlanterFunding for NAMB's policy on providing for church plants.
