About the Family

I am from Colombia. I am married to a woman from Huntington, W.Va. As a historian, I love to write and read. As a musician and singer, I love to create and dream. When I can play soccer, I enjoy being with people and serving.

About My Church Plant

Planting churches is something that fascinates me and continually leads me to learn and discover new strategies. I have had the opportunity to plant churches in different places. Planting a Hispanic church in Huntington (Tri-State) is really a challenge since it is a totally particular context. It is not a church that will obtain good results in the short-term as it is not in the area where in each corner you find Hispanic people. You have to go looking for them, just as Jesus did (search and save).
