About the Family

More than anything, my identity is in Jesus—that's the foundation of who I am. I love doing life with people, whether that's grabbing coffee, going on a spontaneous road trip, camping with the guys, or playing a round of frisbee golf. I'm all about real conversations, deep friendships, and creating space for others to feel known and encouraged. If there's an adventure involved or a chance to connect with someone on a heart level, I'm all in.

About My Ministry

I am a collegiate/university intern on Northern Kentucky University's (NKU) campus. As an intern with the Baptist Collegiate Ministry, I get to reach the campus with the gospel through intentional outreach and events. I spend time building relationships with students to share Christ's love and truth. I also encourage, equip, and guide our student leadership team as they grow in their faith and serve others. I am especially passionate about helping young men find freedom in the fight for purity and walk in the grace and truth of Christ.
