About the Family

I was born in Daejeon, South Korea, in 1986.

I worked as a first class soldier in the Korean Army from 2006 to 2011. After that, I studied at the Korean Baptist Seminary, according to God's call. My family immigrated to Canada in 2015 to serve the pioneering church. Currently, we are preparing to plant a church to expand the kingdom of God.

I have been married to Sungae (Lisa) Lee for 13 years. We have three pretty daughters, Lucy (13), Ellie (8) and Grace (6).

About My Church Plant

We have one simple goal at Follow Church: Everyone, Everywhere Following Jesus.
We desire to see a gospel movement that is so potent its effects are noticeable everywhere in Vancouver and Follow Church.

The gospel is desperately needed in Vancouver, and I am glad to be involved in God's work here.
