

Hyun Namkung

TABERNACLE OF DAMD, SBC

Find out how you can
Pray.
Participate.
Provide.

PRAY.

Pray for compassionate hearts among fellow sailors.
Pray that my life will give glory to God and the Savior, Jesus Christ.
Pray for people to come to saving faith in Jesus.
Pray for more to become missionaries and chaplains.

PARTICIPATE

Commit to long-term prayer support. Explore the opportunities to extend the reach of your church by becoming a chaplain. Be involved in supporting chaplains and their families. Send notes of encouragement. Talk with a chaplain about his or her ministry context. Send resources that support a chaplain's ministry context. Pray for chaplains and their families.

PROVIDE

Become personally invested in the ministry of chaplains. Learn about their ministry context, so you can provide relevant help and resources.

About the Family

Chaplain Namkung, a native of Seoul, Korea, graduated from Dae-Gu University Korea in 1998 with a Bachelor of Arts degree. He earned his Master of Divinity degree at Gateway Baptist Theological Seminary in 2004. He completed his coursework Ph.D. at Grace Mission University in California in 2019. He then commissioned into the U.S. Navy in January of 2020.

Chaplain Namkung graduated from Officer's Development School and the Basic Leadership Course at the Naval Chaplaincy School and Center on April 2020. His first mission is serving on the USS Winston S. Churchill, DDG 81 in Norfolk, Va.

Chaplain Namkung has been married to his wife, Jinhee, for 13 years. They have two adorable children, Yoon and Won. He holds a third degree black belt for Japanese Swordsmanship Martial Arts called Kendo.

About My Ministry

Lt. Namkung is a Navy Chaplain. Prior this ministry, Namkung was a church planter. He planted two churches on the north and south campuses of the State University of New York at Buffalo. He is also the founder of the Korea Society mission and service (2005) for marketplace ministry, columnist for Korea Baptist Press (2016-2018), court interpreter (Korean) and senior pastor for western New York.

He has various cooperative experiences for educational and humanitarian work with Campus Crusade for Christ International (2000), Good Samaritan Hospital in Pakistan (2004), Food for the Hungry in South Korea (2005), Church Alliance in Cambodia (2002-2004), State University of New York at Buffalo (2010-2018), director of international affairs of Grace Mission University (2018-2010) and Syrian Refugee Aid Center in Greece (2019).