SHILOH COVENANT CHURCH

About the Family

Hello! God has blessed me with an incredible family. My wife, Megan, and I have been married for nearly 20 years. Megan does a phenomenal job of helping me and homeschooling our seven children. Our kids are wonderful (on most days!) and love playing sports and spending time together.

I was a middle-school teacher for 20 years until I felt the call to vocational ministry. My time in the classroom was very enjoyable, but the Lord was pulling me into pastoring. Additionally, I was born and raised in Cincinnati and am a die-hard Reds and Bengals fan. The Lord has used this to prepare me for heartbreaks and disappointment in ministry! I am excited for where the Lord has led, and look forward to ministering to God's people on a full-time basis.

About My Church Plant

Shiloh Covenant Church will be planted in Fairfield, Ohio. I have lived in Fairfield for 22 years and taught in Fairfield schools for 20 years. My two elders are graduates of Fairfield High School and live in Fairfield. We are hometown missionaries who want to see our community receive the Gospel and the blessings of knowing Christ as Lord!

Our mission is simple: Make disciples and plant churches.

We are a reformed church, confessing the 1689 2nd London Baptist Confession. We value the biblical practice of hospitality as a means of evangelizing and making disciples. Also, we value simplicity and want to keep a church calendar that allows people time for evangelism. The Bible will drive everything we do, and we emphasize husbands and fathers leading their families.
