RANDALL CHURCH

About the Family

I am Ismail Succes Jean Baptiste. As a little boy, I remember one of my uncles said, "Look at your eyes. You look like a pastor. You will become a pastor."

I accepted Jesus when I was 12 years old. I started attending Bethel Church. My pastor at that time saw the gift I have inside me and immediately involved me in children's ministry, where I started teaching Bible verses to children.

I continue to follow Jesus every day of my life. People in the village started calling me pastor. There my conviction started to build as a young man looking to step into my calling.

I am married my mission sweetheart, Bethany Succes Jean Baptiste. Together we have two beautiful children. JJ is 7, and our daughter, Arie, is 4.

My wife currently serves as the worship director for Randall Church. I serve as a church planting resident at the church.

About My Church Plant

I have been involved in numerous ministries, before and after I was baptized. Accompanying my senior pastor, Rev. Delius Petit Frere, we went to the mountain to plant another church. I moved on to work to another ministry. I was one of the assistant children's pastors, VBS coordinator, youth group secretary until I move on to created Dream Haiti in 2012.

Everyone creates with a special gift inside of them. Many people do not know and understand how great and magnificent that God created them. My mission is to help every one of them to discover their God-given talents. My family and I are agreeing this is the right place for us to advance the work of the kingdom of God. We want to plant a multiethnic church in Buffalo, where all people are welcome and able to meet God for a better future.
