

Find out how you can

Pray.

Participate.

Provide.

PRAY.

Pray for boldness to share the gospel and open hearts among the special operators and that community. Pray more people will come to saving faith in Jesus. Pray more will become missionaries and chaplains.

PARTICIPATE

Commit to long-term prayer support for both ministry and family related items. Build relationships with chaplains and their families. Send letters or notes of encouragement. Talk with a chaplain about his or her ministry context. Send resources that support a chaplain's ministry context.

PROVIDE

Become personally invested in the ministry of chaplains. Learn about their ministry context, so you can provide relevant help and resources.

CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH

About the Family

I have been serving in ministry for more than 15 years. Prior to becoming a U.S. Air Force Chaplain, I served as a senior pastor in two churches in Tennessee. I received my bachelor's degree from the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga. My MDiv is from the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary (SBTS). I am working on my DEdMin from the SBTS.

During my education, I had opportunities to serve as a youth pastor and in college ministry at my Baptist Collegiate Ministry (BCM). While pastoring, I served on numerous committees and boards in my local Baptist association, state convention and East Tennessee State University BCM.

I'm married to my best friend and college sweetheart, Elizabeth. We met at a college Bible study at our BCM. We have three wonderful and silly children: Daniel (11), Lydia (9) and Hannah (6).

About My Ministry

I serve as an SBC-endorsed chaplain assigned to the 1st Special Operation Wing of Hurlburt Field in Fort Walton Beach, Fla. In this capacity, I serve as the lead Protestant chaplain and to the units that encompass Air Force Special Warfare.

Prior to that, I served as a chaplain to those in basic military training and the 40,000 Airmen in training who come through the "Gateway to the Air Force."
