PRAY.

Pray that the students at Morgan State University and all colleges across the country will continuously grow in their faith as they navigate the world within and outside the college space. Pray also for non-believing college students to come to know who Christ is through the efforts of their peers and God's sovereign grace.

PARTICIPATE

You can contact me at jdstewartfuller@gmail.com. I am happy to speak with you about how to pray for the students at Morgan State University. If you are ever on our campus, you are welcome to serve with us anytime. We would also love to partner with you to help us reach college students at one of the oldest HBCUs in the nation!

About the Family

I was born, raised and currently reside in Baltimore City, Maryland. I grew up in Greenmount East, which is considered one of the most dangerous neighborhoods in the city due to its high crime rate and drug activity. Much of what I have learned about the goodness of God's grace, mercy and love was founded upon what I saw growing up and has compelled me to serve and give back to my community.

I hold an M.A. in Ministry and a B.A. in Biblical Studies from Lancaster Bible College. Throughout the years, I have served in multiple ministries, from collegiate ministry as a college student, to street preaching along Baltimore's North Avenue. God has given me a heart for reaching the souls of the people, and I have been blessed to serve in this capacity.

About My Ministry

I am a campus minister for Baptist Collegiate Ministries (BCM) at Morgan State University, located in Baltimore, Maryland. Morgan State is a Historically Black College or University (HBCU) with more than 10,000 students enrolled per year and has graduated over 55,000 students since its establishment in 1867. It was originally founded as a seminary school and has been declared a National Treasure by the National Trust for Historic Preservation.

Morgan State BCM aims to help students grow in their faith and their walk with Christ, teaching that the Christian walk expands far beyond a university's walls. We hold large-group Bible study every Thursday, a women's Bible study every Monday, and a Men's Bible study every Friday. In addition, we offer one-on-one discipleship, serving and mission trip opportunities, and retreats!
