DAMASCUS ROAD INDY

About the Family

I was born and raised on the west side of Indy. I am blessed beyond my comprehension to have married my wife, Amber. We have two kids, whom my wife refers to as tiny adults now. Kierra is 23, and Dom is 21. We enjoy camping, hiking, old vehicles, and cooking, especially smoking food. We are a very close family who enjoys doing as much together as possible.

About My Church Plant

Damascus Road Indy is a replant located on the west side of Indy. The name of the church is inspired by Acts 9, where Saul encounters Jesus on the road to Damascus and has a major life-changing event that brings him to Christ. Damascus Road Indy's greatest desire is to play the part of Ananias in the community God placed us in. We desire to bring the gospel to the people of Bridgeport, care for these people, and disciple them. We also pray that God will use us not just on the west side of Indy but also to the ends of the earth. All for His glory!
