

James Lane

RESTORED CHURCH

About the Family

I met and married my wife, Helene McMichael, in 1986 and entered graduate studies (Master of Theology) at Grand Rapids Baptist Seminary. I worked as a housekeeping director for Cornerstone University while attending graduate school.

I have five wonderful children—four girls and one son. We are active in church and responsible for counseling at our church in Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania.

About My Ministry

I am an SBC-endorsed full-time staff chaplain at Geisinger Wyoming Valley Hospital. Clinical pastoral care is essential in performing my duties as a hospital chaplain. Since Geisinger is a level 1 trauma center, I am called upon to provide spiritual and emotional support rooted in the understanding that God provides His presence, grace and love as a balm for our brokenness.

Find out how you can
Pray.
Participate.
Provide.

PRAY.

Pray for boldness to share the gospel and open hearts among the people to whom I minister.
Pray for people to come to saving faith in Jesus.
Pray for more to become missionaries and chaplains.

PARTICIPATE

Build relationships with medical staff and their families. Commit to long-term prayer support. Explore the opportunities to extend the reach of your church by becoming a chaplain. Be involved in supporting chaplains and their families. Send notes of encouragement. Talk with a chaplain about his or her ministry context. Send resources that support a chaplain's ministry context. Pray for chaplains and their families.

PROVIDE

Learn the ministry strategy and context, so you can provide relevant resources. Support a missionary financially.