About the Family

A few years ago, I read on the North American Mission Board's website the need for mission work in the province of Quebec. A coinciding love for hockey helped grow a desire to one day be part of the work God was doing in the province of Quebec.

I met my wife, Rachel, at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary where she was studying counseling and living across the street from me. Her desire was to make disciples wherever the Lord sent her. As we started dating, she caught the vision to do just that among the French speakers in Canada.

Now we are proud to bring our son, Peter, along on this mission as well.

About My Church Plant

I will be doing a church planting and pastoral residency at Christ Covenant Reformed Baptist Church in Montreal, Quebec. We will also be studying French and hope to plant a French-speaking church.
