

Jason Littlejohn

FIRST BAPTIST CONCORD

About the Family

I was born and raised in Knoxville and came to know the Lord when I was 6 years old. Later at age 21, I became the youngest deacon in the history of my church, which was West Knoxville Baptist Church (now Bridgewater Church) in 1995. I graduated from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, in 1996.

I graduated from The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in 1999 and married my bride, whom I met at a church in Louisville, a month later. I have served as a senior pastor at five churches in both Kentucky and Tennessee and as an associate pastor at a church in Tennessee.

I have three children—Josh (19), Emily (17) and Lily (12). I have had the pleasure to baptize after they came to Christ. I currently live in Knoxville, Tenn.

About My Ministry

I serve as a Chaplain Major with the 118th Wing, Tennessee Air National Guard in Nashville, Tenn. As a traditional guardsman, I mostly have served in a drill status of one weekend a month, two weeks a year over my 10.5 year career. I did deploy outside of the continental U.S. (OCONUS) in 2018 and was also activated as the mission chaplain for the East Tennessee Region during the COVID-19 pandemic to support both Army and Air National Guard personnel working at testing and vaccination sites and hospitals from April 2020 to September 2021. I was also activated from October 2021 to September 2022 in support of global operations at the 118th.

I have performed 49 funerals, responded to three suicides and have multiple suicide saves and led a chapel renovation that led to the baptism of six airmen and family members at our unit.
