About the Family

I have been married to Christi for 15 years. We have three kiddos. Nathan is 11, Emma is 9, and Eden is 6.

I felt called to chaplaincy ministry in 2006 after drowning in the pool at The Citadel and being rescued by a friend. A chaplain grabbed me by the shoulder the next day and told me that God wanted me to know He loved me and wanted me to stop running from Him. The rest is history!

Christi and I love military ministry and have been serving God in local churches and chapels since 2009.

About My Ministry

From 2018–2021, I served with the 1st Brigade Combat Team at Fort Campbell, Ky.

In 2022, I served as Battalion Chaplain with 1st Battalion 10th Special Forces Group in Stuttgart, Germany. I spent one year traveling all over Europe training teams to train Ukrainians to fight. I was the Senior Chaplain for The Bridge Chapel on Robinson Barracks. While there the chaplaincy grew from four to 100 people! God is moving!

In 2023, I moved to Fort Campbell, Ky., to take the 1st Brigade Combat Team 101st Airborne Division as a Brigade Chaplain. I have seven Battalion Chaplains, and we are deploying to Europe.

I also served as the Crossroads Chapel outreach and connect group pastor to all soldiers and families at Fort Campbell. God has been moving in mighty ways through our connect groups, both virtually and in person this year (Psalm 115:1).
