About the Family

I have been married more than 23 years to Caroline and have three children. My wife is a homemaker, homeschool director to several families and teacher to our own.

I previously served in full-time vocational ministry for more than 15 years before entering the Navy as a Chaplain.

About My Ministry

I am currently stationed at Camp Pendleton by the shores of the Pacific Ocean in Southern California. I am a Battalion Chaplain for the Combat Logistics Group 5 of 1st Marine Logistics Group.

I have the joy of sharing Christ and ministering to the needs of Marines, their families and other Navy personnel.
