CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH

About the Family

I am currently serving as the pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, the Battalion Chaplain in the Kentucky National Guard and as the assistant jail chaplain at our detention facility. I stay fairly busy in ministry, but I am also busy coaching and supporting the activities of my three sons.

My wife of 19 years certainly walks beside me through the busy days and supports me 100 percent.

About My Ministry

I am serving as the senior pastor of a congregation of around 200 people. We have a broad range of ages, and our goal is to minister to each according to his or her needs. I strive to lead our congregation to be bold in reaching out to the lost and to have gospel conversations on a daily basis.

My ministry reaches into several other areas as well. I currently serve as the Battalion Chaplain for the 149th Brigade Support Battalion (BSB) in the Kentucky National Guard. I also serve as the assistant chaplain for the Simpson County detention facility.

PRAY.

Pray for boldness to share the gospel and open hearts among the people to whom I minister.
Pray for people to come to saving faith in Jesus.
Pray for more to become missionaries and chaplains.

PARTICIPATE

Commit to long-term prayer support. Chaplains serve as an extension of the local church in places that other church members and staff sometimes cannot go. Explore the opportunities to extend the reach of your church by becoming a chaplain. Support and pray for chaplains and their families.

PROVIDE

NAMB does not provide compensation for SBC endorsed chaplains. However, a general fund is available to receive donations in support of the ministry and pastoral care to SBC endorsed chaplains. To donate, please visit Support Chaplaincy (missionaries.namb.net/projects/full/chaplaincy).
