MILE CITY CHURCH

About the Family

I have been married to my sweet wife, Jess, for 16 years. We have five kids: Charlotte, Lucy, Violet, Cole and June. My family is my first ministry.

I felt the call to ministry three years ago, and God has allowed me to be on an upward trajectory ever since. I love people, and I'm so glad that God has made a way for me to do that. Over the course of five months, God opened an avenue for me to take a job in Michigan. During that five months, my wife and I went through the North American Mission Board church planter assessment, packed up our house in Columbus, Ohio, and moved to Michigan with our five kids. I'm so thankful for this gift!

About My Church Plant

I took a job as a campus pastor/location director for Mile City Church in Plymouth, Mich. Everyone is here because God loves us so much. My number one goal is to go after the one. I want others to know how special they are and that we can go anywhere and do whatever and that at any moment they can turn around and God is right there waiting to hug them and love them and have a real relationship with them.

And second to that, I want to help Christ followers increase their passion for God—to use God's Word to show how big He is—and to be available for God's leading. I just want the bright light to never go dim and to help others believe and live in such a way that loving Jesus consistently only gets better and never becomes dull.
