

Jesse Harrell

BULLS GAP BAPTIST

About the Family

I was raised in Bulls Gap, Tennessee, by my mother and grandparents. I attended my first church service at six weeks of age.

My family has been active members of Bulls Gap Baptist church for well more 70 years. My grandfather is a deacon, my grandmother plays the organ, and my mother was a long time Sunday School teacher/youth leader and is now the facilitator of the prayer chain. Throughout my life, my family has always stressed the importance of a relationship with Christ.

About My Ministry

Currently, I serve as a running club chaplain at Liberty University, serve troops as a chaplain candidate, am a PRN hospice chaplain and fill in for pulpit supply. The Lord has and continues to provide opportunities for me in many areas of ministry.

Find out how you can

Pray.

Participate.

Provide.

PRAY.

Pray for boldness to share the gospel and open hearts among the people to whom chaplains minister.
Pray for people to come to saving faith in Jesus.
Pray for more to become missionaries and chaplains.

PARTICIPATE

Build relationships with chaplains and their families.
Send notes of encouragement.
Learn birthdays and anniversaries, so you can send cards.

PROVIDE

Become personally invested in the ministry of chaplains.
Learn about their ministry context, so you can provide relevant help and resources.