FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH OPELIKA

About the Family

I recently graduated from Auburn University with a bachelor's degree in organismal biology. I am currently applying to the biological oceanography doctorate program at the University of South Florida.

I started attending First Baptist Church Opelika (FBCO) as a freshman at Auburn. The Lord used the community there to help me know Him in a way I never knew possible.

About My Ministry

I am currently serving as a campus missionary with the FBCO college ministry. I get to share the gospel, disciple students and take some seminary classes, all of which were things that used to seem scary to me. But the Lord has been patient and faithful. Walking with Him is exciting and beautiful.
