

Find out how you can Pray. Participate. Provide.

PRAY.

Pray for boldness to share the gospel and open hearts among the people to whom I minister

Pray for people to come to saving faith

Pray for more to answer the call to this critical need in our hospitals.

PARTICIPATE

Commit to long-term prayer support. Explore the opportunities to extend your church's reach by becoming a chaplain. Be involved in supporting chaplains and their families. Send notes of encouragement. Talk with a chaplain about his or her ministry context. Send resources that support a chaplain's ministry context. Pray for chaplains and their families.

PROVIDE

NAMB does not provide compensation for SBC endorsed chaplains. However, a general fund is available to receive donations in support of the ministry and pastoral care to SBC endorsed chaplains. To donate, please visit Support Chaplaincy (missionaries.namb.net/projects/full/chaplaincy).

CANAAN BAPTIST CHURCH

About the Family

Saved by grace while growing up in Missouri, we enjoy ministry wherever the Lord leads us. Today, the location is the St. Louis area. Jennifer and I have been married for more than 25 years and began our ministry experience as church planters to Michigan in 2003.

In 2006, I entered the Army as a Chaplain. In total, I have deployed four times on a variety of peacekeeping, combat and humanitarian missions with the U.S. Army.

Julia, our oldest child and our only daughter, suffers from an autoimmune disorder known as NMO. After years of serious illness, she is doing well today, having recently married and is in college studying journalism.

Jadon and Joshua, our two sons, are doing well. Jadon is training to be a paramedic. Joshua enjoys playing saxophone in jazz band.

About My Ministry

I have retired from Active Duty as an Army chaplain and currently serve as an SBC-endorsed chaplain manager at a local hospital where I lead six chaplains.

Jennifer serves as an elementary teacher at a local public school.
