NORTHERN CROSS COMMUNITY CHURCH

About the Family

I am a military veteran (USAF) and a retired police officer, now fulfilling my dream of serving full time in ministry in eastern Canada. I am not married and do not have any children, but I do have plenty of church family to keep me company.

I love reading and traveling, especially to areas I have never before seen. I am from Biloxi, Miss., and have previously lived in North Dakota, Germany, Italy, Washington, D.C., St John's, Newfoundland, and now Goose Bay, Labrador. I enjoy discussing theology and church growth strategies designed for specific communities. Sharing the gospel message of Jesus Christ is my passion.

About My Church Plant

After retiring, I entered ministry full time and moved to St. John's, Newfoundland, Canada, to work for as a pastoral intern for a local church planting ministry called Mile One Mission (Calvary Baptist Church in Mount Pearl, Newfoundland). After nearly three years with the Mile One Mission team, I moved to Happy Valley-Goose Bay, Labrador, in January 2024. I am blessed to serve in ministry in such a beautiful part of the world.

Eastern Canada has been a bit overlooked in evangelical circles in recent decades, and the need is great here, so when I felt called to come here I was more than eager to go. God willing, I will spend the rest of my life serving in ministry to the glory of God.
