VILLAGE CHURCH MIAMI

About the Family

My wife, Brittany, and I moved in 2019 from the Upstate of South Carolina to plant Village Church in South Florida. We are in a small community called Cutler Bay about 30 minutes south of the city of Miami.

It has been exciting to come alongside what God has already been doing here and joining in His kingdom mission to reach the lost.

About My Church Plant

Village Church was established in October of 2019 with the purpose and vision of connecting people to each other and to Jesus. We are a missional community who takes pride in knowing our neighbors and doing life together.

God has blessed us with a great relationship with the local middle school in our community where we host our Sunday morning services, small groups, Bible studies, etc. We know that God has strategically placed us in an environment that badly needs the gospel. That is why Village Church desires to create a space in which an authentic gospel community can be lived out.
