SOLA CHURCH

About the Family

I became a Christian at age 16 when I heard and responded to the good news of the gospel of Jesus Christ. I graduated from the Moody Bible Institute in Pastoral Ministry, Moody Theological Seminary in Masters of Congregational Leadership and finally the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in a Doctorate of Biblical Counseling.

I have assisted in Southern Baptist life in various local, state and national roles. I served in the past on the executive committee at Southwest Baptist University (Bolivar, Mo.) and currently on the board of trustees at Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary (Kansas City, Mo.). I also have the joy of being on the board of directors for Pastor's Hope Network. I am also an endorsed church planter of the Pillar Network.

My wife, Kennedy, and I have four children: Kaede, Seiji, Anna and Ren.

About My Ministry

I am an SBC-endorsed healthcare chaplain. I have the honor to be the founding and lead pastor of Sola Church in the Northland of Kansas City. I have served the past 15 years in various pastoral positions at various churches. I am a level II certified biblical counselor with the Association of Certified Biblical Counselors.

I am a contributor to the bi-weekly journal, "Pathway" (Missouri Baptist Convention). I also served as a commissioner for the Missouri Commission of Human Rights and was the vice chairman for 2021. I have been fortunate to publish articles for various websites, several scholarly journal articles, a book review and books such as "Ordinary Radicals: A Return to Christ-Centered Discipleship" and "Making Lemonade: Turning Past Failures into Gospel Opportunities."
