HOPE CHURCH

About the Family

I served as a pastor in Lee's Summit, Mo., before enlisting and eventually commissioning as a chaplain in the Army. I have no immediate family in my household, only my dog, Asha, who is an 80-pound mastiff mix. My folks are still in Kansas City, where I grew up, and my only brother is married and has two kids on the East Coast.

About My Ministry

I've been an Army Reserve chaplain since 2015, looking to return to active duty, God-willing.
