WORD OF GRACE BAPTIST CHURCH

About the Family

My lovely wife, Danielle, our five sons—Joshua, Stephen, Benjamin, Samuel and Joseph—and I reside in the small town of Taylorsville settled in the foothills of western North Carolina. We enjoy the slow-paced atmosphere and tight-knit community. The boys enjoy church activities, sports and playing music.

Danielle homeschools the children, helps facilitate women's Bible studies and plays the guitar. I serve alongside leadership in the local church, work a secular job in an outpatient physical therapy clinic and serve as a chaplain in the North Carolina National Guard (NCNG).

About My Ministry

I serve the local church as a church planting partner working alongside the elders to develop disciple-making disciples. My primary endeavors in this role are preaching, teaching, leading men's Bible study, leading short-term mission trips and cultivating partnerships with like-minded local churches.

Additionally, I serve as a chaplain in the NCNG where I conduct services, lead Bible studies, provide biblical counseling and perform the administrative duties of a Captain.

Find out how you can

Pray.

Participate.

Provide.

PRAY.

Pray for boldness to share the gospel and open hearts among the people to whom chaplains minister.

Pray for people to come to saving faith in Jesus.

Pray for more to become missionaries and chaplains.

PARTICIPATE

Build relationships with chaplains and their families.

Send notes of encouragement.

Learn birthdays and anniversaries, so you can send cards.

PROVIDE

Become personally invested in the ministry of chaplains.

Learn about their ministry context, so you can provide relevant help and resources.
