SEND Network

Jonathan Reid

GRACE HARBOR CHURCH

About the Family

Virginia and I live in Providence, R.I., with our six children: Isaac, Asa, Jadon, Rosa, LeAnnah and Elise. We are members of Grace Harbor Church in Providence.

About My Ministry

Fostering Hope exists to help churches and individuals care for children, families and professionals impacted by foster care. We call our vision Project Zero. We dream of a day when ZERO children in foster care are waiting for a safe, supportive family. Ideally and as often as possible, that family turns out to be the child's family of origin through the process of family reunification and preservation. In the meantime, there is an urgent need for temporary foster and permanent adoptive families.

Our role is to help churches make service to the foster care community a sustainable part of the ministry culture of their church community. We especially focus on helping churches raise up new families, wrap around existing families, support birth families and encourage child welfare professionals.

Find out how you can

Pray.
Participate.
Provide.

PRAY.
Pray that churches and Christians in New England will increasingly reflect God's love to the foster care community.
Pray more families in New England will open their hearts and homes to children in need.
Pray the lives of children, families and professionals will be impacted as the church engages in love.

PARTICIPATE
Partner with us via monthly support.
Contact us to discuss how your church community can serve the foster care community in your area.
Host a vision event.

PROVIDE
Many missionaries build a team to join their ministry in prayer, participation, and provision. These friends, family and churches support missionaries beyond the tithes and offerings given within the church plant. Visit sendnetwork.com/PlanterFunding for NAMB's policy on providing for church plants.

Contact me at jonathan@fosteringhope.org, https://twitter.com/fosteringhopene?lang=en or on Twitter