PROVIDENCE ROAD CHURCH MIAMI

About the Family

I am from Cincinnati, Ohio, and attended college at the University of Cincinnati. I have a loving family who stretches from Dayton, Ohio, down to Knoxville, Tennessee. My brother, Andrew, and his wife, Brooke, have three children, with number four on the way. My brother, David, and his wife, Brooklyn, have four kids. My sister, Ella, and her husband, Billy, are recently married and starting a new chapter of life together as one.

Jesus brought me to saving faith in the fall of 2023. I was baptized in January of 2024. I served in a college ministry for the rest of my undergraduate career.

I love sports, playing or watching. It's such a blessing from the Lord when we get to spend time together in general, but especially when watching the Steelers!

About My Ministry

I started doing ministry, as we are all called to, when I came to know Christ. I love to spend time discipling and doing life with young men! This can look like meet-ups once a week where we share a meal, read the Word of God, or just talk about life together and seek to sharpen one another.
