CARROLLWOOD BAPTIST CHURCH

About the Family

I am married to the former Rhonda McCall of Arcadia, Fla. We have three children, Rachel, Ben and Caleb (who is now with our Lord) and four grandchildren, Gracie, Liam, Audrey, and Noah. We currently reside in Lutz, Fla., just north of Tampa. When not serving, I enjoy reading and a variety of outdoor activities, including hiking and kayaking.

About My Ministry

I recently began serving as an SBC-endorsed full-time in-home hospice chaplain with HPH Hospice, an affiliate of Chapters Health working in the Pasco/Hernando County, Fla., area on team Aquamarine. I enjoy visiting my patients in their homes, and I treasure the “holy” moments that God grants me as I serve the Lord and share His love.

I am also the lead pastor of Carrollwood Baptist Church (CBC) in Tampa, where I have served since 2015. Prior to CBC, I served two churches in the Baton Rouge, La., area and one in south Alabama. I occasionally serve as an adjunct professor for the New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary where I received my M.Div. and Ph.D. degrees. My undergraduate work was accomplished at the Baptist College of Florida.

Pray.
Participate.
Provide.

PRAY.

Pray for balance as I seek to serve in a dual capacity as a chaplain and a pastor. Pray that through my ministry, more people would come to saving faith and become mature disciples.

PARTICIPATE

Commit to long-term prayer support. Explore the opportunities to extend the reach of your church by becoming a chaplain. Be involved in supporting chaplains and their families. Send notes of encouragement. Talk with a chaplain about his or her ministry context. Send resources that support a chaplain's ministry context. Pray for chaplains and their families.

PROVIDE

Learn the ministry strategy and context, so you can provide relevant resources. Support a missionary financially.
