THE K12 COLLECTIVE

About the Family

Hannah and I were married on August 7, 2022, after the Lord miraculously confirmed our relationship toward one another. (We would love to share our story if you ask!)

Hannah Mae was born on April 3, 2002. She grew up as a military kid, moving between the southern United States and Okinawa, Japan, but spent her most formational years in Decatur, Alabama. She is working toward a degree in social work at Liberty University with the intention of using her vocation as a ministry platform.

I was born March 1, 2002. I grew up in a missionary family, moving between Alberta, Canada, Southern California, and the Kenai Peninsula in Alaska. I am working toward a degree in pastoral leadership, hoping to use vocational ministry to reach the lost in my community.

Hannah and I now live in Lynchburg, Virginia, as missionary church planters.

About My Church Plant

We serve with The K12 Collective, a church plant that uses personal discipleship to reach the lost while enabling ordinary people to disciple others in both local and global contexts. We each serve as disciple makers, meeting regularly with people in our community and sharing the truth of the gospel. I serve as an associate pastor with K12.

Both Hannah and I felt called to leave our church in spring of 2022 and to be part of The K12 Collective. Although ministry has its ups and downs, we both cling to the assurance that being in the center of God's will is where we will be the most effective at accomplishing the work God has set out for us. We both cherish opportunities to see the Lord at work in the ministry.

PRAY.

Pray for boldness to share the gospel and that hearts would be opened to receive the truth. —
Pray that through this ministry, more people would come to saving faith and live on mission. —
Pray for stamina and longevity for ministry amidst attacks from the enemy. —

Pray the Lord would equip ordinary people to become powerful mission-minded disciple-makers. —
Pray for Hannah and her family as they grieve the passing of her brother.

PARTICIPATE

We believe partnership is not a one-sided commitment. We desire to have a deep relationship with those with whom we partner. We love connecting with our ministry partners, so don't be shy! —
We need advocates who will share our stories with others. Who knows? Maybe your neighbor will want to join the team! — Send notes of encouragement.
