SOWER CHURCH

About the Family

Hello! My name is Josh.

I grew up in Missouri and was blessed to have a strong church background from an early age. Although I spent many years in church, it wasn't until my freshman year at the University of Nebraska—Lincoln (UNL) that I truly understood the gospel and committed my life to following Jesus.

During my time at UNL, God used Christian Challenge to help me grow in my faith and develop a passion for helping college students know and follow Christ. I recently graduated with a degree in Mechanical Engineering, and I am excited to be on staff at Christian Challenge!

About My Ministry

I am currently on staff with Christian Challenge at UNL. We are partnered with Sower Church, which is right in the heart of Lincoln.

Our mission is to help students COMMIT to Christ, PREPARE for a lifetime of following Him, and ADVANCE the gospel right here in Lincoln and to the ends of the earth.

We do this by inviting students to participate in community, to get plugged into a local church, and to teach them through His Word.
