REGIONAL EDUCATION CENTER MINISTRIES

About the Family

Judy and Roger Hansard are evangelism catalysts through the North American Mission Board. They serve in compassion ministries at the Regional Education Center, organized in 2009 at the intersection of Tennessee, Virginia and Kentucky—only 45 miles from the Great Smoky Mountains. The goal of their ministry is to educate, elevate and evangelize the people of their region. They coordinate the distribution of food and resources to the areas of greatest need through churches, ministry centers and community organizations. The Hansards rely on individual and group donations to support their ministry.

Judy and Roger are members of the First Baptist Church of New Tazewell, Tenn. They have two sons and daughters-in-law and four granddaughters.

Pray.

Participate.

Provide.

PRAY.

Pray faithful financial supporters will come alongside us in ministry.
Pray there would be opportunities to train leaders to spread the gospel of Christ through literacy.
Pray there would be receptive hearts among the people in communities/regions where we serve.
Pray churches and individuals will partner with us in learning how to spread the gospel of Christ through literacy.
Pray the Father will send more workers into His harvest to join us.

PARTICIPATE

Connect as a Supporting Church with our work
Commit to long-term missions support with us
Be involved in supporting missionaries and their families.
Pray for missionaries.

PROVIDE

Many missionaries build a team to join their ministry in prayer, participation, and provision. These friends, family and churches support missionaries beyond the tithes and offerings given within the church.
