About the Family

I was raised outside of Charlottesville with my two brothers, my parents and our three dogs. In the last few years, the Lord has kept me in the area and grown my heart for my own community. I have been able to see God at work through the local body of believers and that has strengthened my passion for local missions and outreach.

About My Church Plant

Center College is an on-grounds ministry tied to a local church in Charlottesville. Our mission is to reach college students and make Jesus known at University of Virginia! My role includes full-time college ministry, where I participate in tabling, broad gospel sharing on grounds, leading out small groups and organizing events.
