UPLIFT MINISTRY

About the Family

My name is Kenny Cash. I am married to JoAnne and have four adult daughters, three sons-in-law and two awesome grandchildren.

I was blessed to grow up in Atlanta in the nation's first housing project. I feel blessed to have had the privilege of being your inner-city Atlanta missionary since 1995.

About My Ministry

Uplift Ministry desires to lift up the name of Jesus by evangelizing, equipping and empowering Atlanta's urban boys. We use basketball, flag football, after-school programs and summer camp to share the gospel and disciple Atlanta's inner-city boys.

We also have a program called Men In Training where we teach our older boys home and auto repair, leadership development and what it means to be a godly man. We minister to boys from ages 11 to 18.

PRAY.

Pray God would give us the wisdom and the resources we need to make an impact in the lives of our inner-city boys.
Pray many of them would come to know Jesus as their Lord and Savior.

PARTICIPATE

You can find out how you can be more involved in our ministry with urban boys through our website: atlupliftministry.org.
To receive our newsletter simply contact me at upliftministry@bellsouth.net.

PROVIDE

Many missionaries build a team to join their ministry in prayer, participation, and provision. These friends, family and churches support missionaries beyond the tithes and offerings given within the church plant. Visit sendnetwork.com/PlanterFunding for NAMB's policy on providing for church plants.
