About the Family

Ken and Sharon have been married for more than 39 years. Their 40th anniversary was February 11, 2018. Ken and Sharon are blessed with four adult children (three boys and a girl) who assist them in ministry as needed. Another joyful addition to the family arrived on October 11, 2016, as their daughter, Kendra, and her husband, Branden, blessed them with their first grandson, Kenden.

About My Ministry

Ken and Sharon have been on the mission field in California since 1995. They previously served with the California Southern Baptist Convention as ministry evangelism missionaries. Currently they are serving as evangelism catalysts in the Los Angeles area with the North American Mission Board. Their ministries include hunger relief, prison ministry, mentoring and leadership training with new and existing church leaders, ministry evangelism training and more.

Ken and Sharon continue their mission call by developing financial support through ministry partners who have a heart for the great and hard missions work in the greater Los Angeles area. Their message to all is to "Care the Way Jesus Cares." They see their mission field through the eyes of Jesus as they help people at the point of their physical, emotional and spiritual need.
