GO CHURCH EAST COUNTY

About the Family

My wife, Rachel, and I, along with our three children, moved from the Dallas/Fort Worth area to the greater Portland, Oregon, area to help plant churches in 2002, having already fallen in love with the area after visiting family for vacations in previous years. Our hearts ache at how spiritually lost this region is.

Our kids are grown. We are blessed with three wonderful grandkids. We have been involved in several church plants since moving here to Sandy, Oregon, in the foothills of beautiful Mount Hood.

When I make time for it, I love to get out my kayak on Trillium Lake, the Clackamas River, and a few more places. Rachel and I love road trips, whether to the incredible Oregon Coast, to see family in Idaho, or just to take a road we've never driven before and explore the stunning natural beauty of the Pacific Northwest.

About My Ministry

I am an SBC-endorsed fire and disaster relief chaplain. I have been serving as the Clackamas Fire Chaplain since 2013 and as a chaplain for Disaster Relief (DR) since 2011, helping first responders and trauma survivors find God-given strength in their darkest moments. I also serve as an interim DR coordinator for Region 3 within the Northwest Baptist Convention.

I served as a 911 dispatch chaplain for seven years.

With 100+ hours of CISM training through ICISF, I am a Master Chaplain and Level III Instructor with the Federation of Fire Chaplains, and I love training new chaplains. I've also served as an officer with the Clackamas Volunteer Firefighter Association, earning three Support Volunteer of the Year awards.

PRAY.

Pray for boldness to share the gospel and open hearts among the people to whom I minister.

Commit to long-term prayer support. Explore the opportunities to extend your church's reach by becoming a chaplain. Be involved in supporting chaplains and their families. Send notes of encouragement. Talk with a chaplain about his or her ministry context. Send resources that support a chaplain's ministry context. Pray for chaplains and their families.

PROVIDE

Many missionaries build a team to join their ministry in prayer, participation, and provision. These friends, family and churches support missionaries beyond the tithes and offerings given within the church plant. Visit sendnetwork.com/PlanterFunding for NAMB's policy on providing for church plants.
