About the Family

My wife, Amy, and I have eight children (five boys and three girls), ages 12 to 1. Their names are Caeden, Ivy, Chase, Chandler, Sage, Cypress, Bryn and Autumn. I was born in Canada, and Amy was born in Indiana. We met in our college days and were married in 2010.

We have had the joy of serving in various ministry contexts both before marriage and throughout our married lives.

About My Church Plant

We began our married lives in Canada, where I served as a church planter/pastor at Redeeming Grace Bible Church in Morden, Manitoba. In 2019, we relocated to Indiana where I came on as a pastor at Syracuse Baptist Church. However, we continued to pray about where the Lord would have us long term.

In spring of 2023, we were made aware of the need for a church planter in Howard, Colo. There is no other church in the community, as we continued to investigate. We were led to relocate to Howard in November 2023.
