BOCARATON COMMUNITY CHURCH

About the Family

I am an immigrant and originally from Burma/Myanmar. I was born and raised in a Christian home, and I was baptized after I graduated from high school. I earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in English when I was in the university, and after I graduated from the university, I went to Malaysia to work as a migrant worker.

That was the starting point of my spiritual life journey with the LORD. I became a devoted, true believer when I was around 20.

I am still single, not married yet, and have no kids. My father and mother are still living in Burma/Myanmar, and my only younger sister lives in Japan.

About My Ministry

I am an SBC-endorsed full-time hospice chaplain at Vitas Healthcare.

After I experienced the love of God through my life circumstances, I wanted to grow spiritually. Since then, I have participated in church and ministry by serving based on what the church and ministry needed. I got my calling for full-time ministry through the mentor relationship with my pastor there.

Later, my church sent me to seminary and, finally, I became an associate pastor in that migrant worker church. Then, God brought me to the United States, and I was in a seminary in Fort Worth, Texas, for four years. While I was there, I participated in the refugee ministry.
