About the Family

Growing up, I always had a heart for serving others. Throughout the years, and especially during my time at college, the Lord began cultivating a heart for missions and ministry in me. I have had the honor of working in several leadership and service positions, but it was not until the summer of 2022 when I worked as a camp counselor at Camp La Vida, that the Lord revealed to me my passion for ministry work. From that moment on, I knew that in order to be fulfilled in life, it would have to be a life on mission.

In the process of preparing for graduation, it was abundantly clear that the Lord was orchestrating my steps. Through one of the many divine appointments during my college experience, I discovered a collegiate ministry in Vermont and felt the Lord leading me to work alongside them in their mission.

About My Ministry

Did you know that Vermont is one of the least religious states in America? Many college campuses in the state have no organized gospel presence. Because of this, our mission is to reach the unreached and equip college students with the gospel of Christ. My goal as a collegiate missionary is to create a space for these students to explore and/or further develop a relationship with the Lord and for them to lead others to do the same. I hope to cultivate discipleship and create an environment in which students feel encouraged to passionately pursue the Lord and a life of missions.

I am extremely grateful for this opportunity and ecstatic to see what the Lord has in store!
